

English for Tourism

Communicating confidently in English for students in the hospitality, travel and tourism industries. Each level offers both speaking and writing components – however, each component is also available as a standalone qualification for students who are looking to improve specific skills.

Level 1

Who it's for

Students who want to be able to communicate in English in a practical way at a basic level.

Students should currently have a general English proficiency equivalent to the Council of Europe's Waystage Level (A2). They should be able to use travel and tourism related vocabulary including idioms and expressions.

What it covers

- Writing & reading and speaking & listening
- Processing tourism related information
- Vocabulary around: holiday, accommodation and methods of travel

Level 2

Who it's for

Students who want to be able to communicate effectively in English at a supervisory level.

Students should currently have a general English proficiency equivalent to the Council of Europe's Threshold Level (B1). They should be able to use language and terminology specific to the travel and tourism industry.

What it covers

- Writing & reading and speaking & listening
- Writing letters, memos, faxes
- Understanding brochures, leaflets, advertisements, and announcements
- Planning tour commentaries and itineraries
- Calculating passenger numbers/requirements and costs
- Speaking about holiday, accommodation types and methods of travel
